

SGET 700: Tools for the Development of Instruction

Beta/Usability Testing

USER TESTING FORM

Score your answers on a scale of 1 – 5, with 1 being the lowest and 5 the highest. Write in comments where you feel you need to explain.

Name: Nick Andrezza

You are a: Student Teacher Friend Other
(Circle One)

Score	Topic
5	How easy is it to navigate from page to page? It was very easy to navigate from page to page. Each lesson was organized in sequential order and it was very clear as to where I needed to click in order to move from one lesson to another. Each hyperlink directed me to a resource or activity that clearly aligned with each given lesson. The Parent Page and Teacher Page were particularly well organized and very user friendly.
5	What seems to be the purpose here? This website seems to serve multiple purposes. It is a guide for teachers to use with their students based on the overall unit of Scientific Practices. In addition, this website also provides parents valuable resources to use at home following each lesson.
5	Did you get lost / confused? If so, where? I did not get lost at all while navigating this website. It was very well-organized and very user-friendly. The way in which this website has been developed allows for both novice and veteran users of technology to navigate with ease.
5	What is the best thing that you like about this site? I was impressed by the variety of resources that are available as you navigate through the various pages. Resources ranged from videos, rubrics, recording sheets, games, and additional ideas for both parents and teachers.
5	What is something you would recommend changing on this site? I would not recommend any changes to these pages at this time.
5	If you had to recommend one thing about this site, what would it be? This site is very comprehensive. So many resources are provided for both parents and teachers that are aimed at student learning. Perhaps a list of children's non-fiction books that pertain to types of scientists and scientific topics could be made available to parents.
NA	Comments: